Australia-Individual 2003 Notes

- Use these Notes to help you complete form Australia-Individual 2003.
- If after reading these Notes you need further information, please contact HM Revenue & Customs. Our address and phone number are in Note 7.

1. Double taxation - being liable to pay tax in both countries

If you have income from one country and are resident in another, you may be liable to pay tax in both countries under their tax laws. To avoid 'double taxation' in this situation, the United Kingdom (UK) has negotiated Double Taxation (DT) treaties with countries that include Australia. The precise conditions that apply to your income from the UK as a resident of Australia can be found in the text of the UK/Australia Double Taxation Convention.

2. Purpose of form Australia-Individual 2003

Form Australia-Individual 2003 enables you as a resident of Australia to apply under the United Kingdom/Australia Double Taxation Convention for relief at source from UK income tax on a UK State Pension and UK-source pensions, purchased annuities, royalties and interest. The form also provides for a claim to repayment of UK tax in cases where payments of the income have already been made with UK tax deducted.

3. Tax vouchers

Do not send tax vouchers with the completed form Australia-Individual 2003. Keep them safe in case they are needed later to support the claim. But if you have any doubt about how you have completed the form you can send the vouchers if you think it will help us.

If you receive a pension, please

- see note 8 'Completing the form Australia-Individual 2003' and
- read the guidance about Parts C.1 and C.2 and the photocopy documents you may need to send.

4. Residence in Australia

It is a condition of relief from UK income tax under the terms of United Kingdom/Australia Double Taxation Convention that the beneficial owner of the income is resident in Australia.

Holders of Australian Temporary Resident Visas - Important change from 1 July 2006

From 1 July 2006 Australia changed its law to exempt from Australian tax, with the exception of income from employment, the non-Australian income of individuals who are temporary residents of Australia.

Article 23(2) of the 2003 Convention between the UK and Australia provides that where an individual is exempt from tax by virtue of being a temporary resident of Australia, then the relief to be allowed under the Convention in the UK shall not apply to the extent that income or gains are exempt from tax in Australia.

This means that if you hold a Temporary Resident Visa, you are liable to UK income tax on your UK source income paid on or after 1 July 2006. UK income paid before that date will qualify for relief from UK tax under the UK/Australia Double Taxation Convention.

However you may be able to claim UK Allowances to set against your income. For more information

- go to the HM Revenue & Customs website at www.hmrc.gov.uk and look for non-residents in the Search facility
- contact HM Revenue & Customs at the address and phone number shown in note 7.

5. Confidentiality

All the information that you provide to HM Revenue & Customs is confidential. We can therefore only discuss your tax affairs with you or any tax adviser named by you.

6. Where to send the completed form

Please send the completed form Australia-Individual 2003 to the Australian Taxation Office for the state in which you reside. If you are resident in Australia for the purposes of Australian tax, the Australian Taxation Office will certify the form and send it to HM Revenue & Customs.

7. Help or further information

If, after using these Notes you need help or more information,

- visit www.hmrc.gov.uk and look for non-residents in the Search facility
- phone HM Revenue & Customs + 44 135 535 9022 if calling from outside the UK, or 0845 300 0627 if calling from the UK
- or write to HM Revenue & Customs, Pay As You Earn and Self Assessment, PO Box 4000, Cardiff, United Kingdom, CF14 8HR.

Please quote our reference number or your UK National Insurance Number whenever you contact us.

8. Completing the form Australia-Individual 2003

Use the following notes to help you complete Parts A to F of form Australia-Individual 2003.

Please

- include on the form only the income on which you are claiming relief from UK tax under the provisions of the UK/Australia Double Taxation Convention
- give all the information requested and attach any supporting documents that are asked for. If you need more room, attach a separate sheet. Please write your name and your HM Revenue & Customs reference number on each additional sheet.

Part A: Personal details of claimant

Please give all the details asked for. If you have a tax adviser, include the tax adviser's details.

Part B: Questions

Tick the boxes that apply to you and give any additional information asked for.

Part C: Application for relief at source from UK income tax

As explained in these Notes, the UK/Australia Double Taxation Convention provides for

- no UK tax to be withheld from payments of pensions and annuities
- UK tax at 10% to be withheld from payments of interest
- UK tax at 5% to be withheld from payments of royalties.

However, please see note 4 above about holders of Australian Temporary Resident Visas.

Give the details asked for in Part C to apply for relief at source from UK income tax on future payments of income. Relief at source may be available in cases where HM Revenue & Customs is able to exercise its discretion to issue a notice (under Statutory Instrument 1970 Number 488, as amended). We deal with each application on its merits. Where we cannot agree to allow relief at source or cannot arrange it, you can claim repayment of the UK tax taken off.

If relief at source is granted, please tell HM Revenue & Customs at the address in Note 7, without delay, if there is any subsequent change to the information you have given on the form Australia-Individual 2003.

C.1: UK State Pension

The UK State Pension is a National Insurance benefit and is taxable, but usually paid without deduction of tax. If you receive a UK State Pension you can claim exemption from UK income tax under the UK/Australia Double Taxation Convention. Tick the 'UK State Pension' box in Part C.1 of the form Australia-Individual 2003 and give the date payments began.

State Pension Deferral lump sum

If you have received a State Pension Deferral lump sum from which UK tax has been taken off, see Part D of these notes.

C.2: UK pensions and purchased annuities

Pensions (including the UK State Pension - see C.1 of these notes) and most annuities from the UK, paid to you as a resident of Australia, can be exempted from UK income tax. If UK income tax has been deducted from pension or annuity payments, this tax can be repaid to you in full.

If the pension and/or annuity is taxed under the PAYE (Pay As You Earn) system, any adjustment will go back to the latest of the following:

- the date on which you became resident in Australia for the purpose of that country's tax
- the date payments of the income began, or
- the earliest UK tax year which remains in date for claiming repayment of UK income tax.

Please send with your form Australia-Individual 2003 a photocopy of the latest P60 that you have received from the payer of your pension. This will help us make the adjustment.

C.3: UK Interest

UK source interest can be paid to you with 10% tax deducted. Any UK tax in excess of 10% that has been deducted can be repaid to you.

Interest from securities

UK tax is deducted from interest on loan stocks issued by

- companies which are not quoted on the Stock Exchange and
- local authorities.

We may be able to arrange for interest on these stocks to be paid with tax deducted at 10%, as explained in this note.

Interest from the following UK sources is paid with no UK tax deducted, so there is no need to apply for relief from UK tax at source. Please do not enter in Part C2 of form Australia-Individual 2003

- interest from company loan stocks quoted on the Stock Exchange (paid automatically without deduction of UK tax)
- interest from UK government securities (paid automatically without deduction of UK tax).

Additionally, some UK banks and building societies operate a scheme for payment of interest without deduction of UK tax to non-residents. Ask your UK bank or building society for information. HM Revenue & Customs cannot arrange for payment of bank or building society interest with no UK tax deducted, so again, please do not enter such interest in Part C2 of form Australia-Individual 2003.

If you have already received any interest with UK tax deducted, you may claim repayment of the tax in excess of 10%.

Other interest

Where interest is payable on a loan to a UK resident individual or company, please attach a copy of the loan agreement to the form Australia-Individual 2003.

C.4: Royalties

Most UK source royalties can be paid to you with a rate of 5% tax deducted. Any UK tax in excess of 5% that has been deducted can be repaid to you.

The Double Taxation Convention allows relief only to the beneficial owner of the royalties. The beneficial owner is normally the originator of the work or product.

Copyright royalties for literary, dramatic, musical or artistic works

If you are not the originator but have acquired the rights, please attach to the form Australia-Individual 2003 a copy of the licence, contract or assignment under which you have acquired the UK rights. This will help us to check that the beneficial ownership condition in the Double Taxation Convention is satisfied.

Other royalties

Please attach to the form Australia-Individual 2003 a copy of the licence agreement between you and the UK payer of the royalties. If you are not the originator of the product giving rise to the royalties but have acquired the rights, please also attach a copy of the licence, contract or assignment under which you have acquired the UK rights.

Part D: Claim for repayment of UK income tax

Interest and royalties

As explained in these notes, the UK/Australia Double Taxation Convention provides for a reduced rate of UK tax to be withheld from payments of interest and royalties. If you have received interest or royalty payments from which UK tax has been taken off, you may claim repayment of some of the UK tax. Enter the details asked for in Part D.

Income from a trust or estate

- If you receive payments from a trust or estate, write the name of the trust or estate in the source of income box in Part D.
- If you have received a payment from a discretionary trust, write both the name of the trust and its UK tax reference number in the source of income box in Part D. HM Revenue & Customs will 'look through' to the income received by the trustees and work out the repayment due to you. It is likely that you will only be entitled to some of the amount shown as tax credit at the rate applicable to trusts in box 7.2 of the Statement of income from trusts, R185 (Trust Income), given to you by the trustees.

State Pension Deferral lump sum

If you have received a State Pension Deferral lump sum from which UK tax has been taken off

- fill in Part C.1 to claim exemption from UK income tax for payments of the State Pension and
- enter in Part D the amount of the lump sum and the amount of tax taken off.

Please send with your form Australia-Individual 2003 a photocopy of the notification of the lump sum award that you received from The Pension Service. This will help us make the repayment.

Part E: Payment to a nominee

You should only complete Part E if you want HM Revenue & Customs to make any repayment to a bank, building society, tax adviser or other person on your behalf. If you want the repayment to be credited to a bank or building society account, the account holder's name must be the same as the name of the person entitled to receive the repayment. We will send the repayment by post so you will need to give the full postal address and other details asked for on the form.

If you want repayment to be made to your tax adviser, please give the reference number (if any) that the tax adviser uses in correspondence with you.

You must also complete and sign the declaration at Part F if you sign the authorisation in Part E.

Part F: Declaration

You must sign the form Australia-Individual 2003 personally in Part F.

You may claim on behalf of

- an unmarried minor (someone under the age of 18), or
- a mentally incapacitated person, or
- someone who has died.

Claims should normally be made by

- a parent or guardian on behalf of an unmarried minor
- the person authorised by the courts to look after the affairs of a mentally incapacitated adult (or the DWP appointee)
- the executor or administrator of the estate of someone who has died (the claim will relate to income up to the date of death only).

Ask HM Revenue & Customs if you are in any doubt about whether you are the right person to make the claim. Remember that in these notes and in the form, references to 'you' and 'your' may equally apply to the person on whose behalf you are claiming.

Working out for yourself the amount of tax repayable

If you have received interest or royalty payments from which UK tax has been deducted, you may claim repayment of some of the UK tax. As explained in these Notes, the UK/Australia Double Taxation Convention provides for UK tax to be withheld at the reduced rates of

- 10% from interest payments
- 5% from royalty payments.

Please see the instructions below. If you do not wish to work out the repayment and do not enter an amount in Part F2(a) of the form Australia-Individual 2003, HM Revenue & Customs will work out any repayment due.

Instructions

You may use the boxes below to work out the amount of any repayment of tax on UK interest or royalty payments.

- |   | Income     | UK tax     |
|---|------------|------------|
| • Enter in box 1 the amount of income before deduction of UK tax and in box 2 the amount of UK tax deducted (take these figures from the totals boxes in Part D of the form Australia-Individual 2003) | 1 £ | 2 £ |
| • If the income is interest , calculate 10% of the total amount of interest (in box 1) and enter the result in box 3.   |            | 3 £ |
| • If the income is royalties , calculate 5% of the total amount of royalties (in box 1) and enter the result in box 3.  |            |            |
| • Deduct the amount in box 3 from the amount in box 2 and enter the result in box 4   |            | 4 £ |
| • Finally, take the amount you have shown in box 4 and enter it on the form Australia-Individual 2003 at Part F2(a). This is the amount repayable to you.  |            |            |

NOTE: If you claim repayment of tax deducted from both interest and royalties, you will need to work out the amounts separately. Use the boxes above as a guide. Add together the tax repayable for the interest and for the royalties, then enter the grand total in Part F2(a) of the form.
