Rats' Characteristics:

Those born in the Rat Years are extremely intelligent and ones of high survival skills. Rats are team-players for different reasons. They are able to take inputs from others to create superb and highly effective solutions that benefit others and, unselfishly, for their own credit and glory. Not easy to guess what they are thinking of, if they choose not to say, for they are too fast and unpredictable. They are highly family-oriented and will do anything (even at others' expense) for the goodness of his or her family. Once in a while, they stray.

Rats' 2004 Luck:

You shall be on a bull run as far as good luck is concerned. 2004 and 2005 are your best years and you better make full use of them. Your confidence will rise as your wealth improve but it is important to keep a level head. Your ideas can make a lot of money for you but always take a step back to critically analyse from all angles. Get a lawyer's advice before you sign any important contract and make sure you can carry out your promises before making them, otherwise you will end up in unnecessary legal tussles. Also there are many wolves in sheep skin around you, so beware of lip services and double-headed snakes. Helps may come from ox, dragon and monkey.

For those seeking love and romance, you probably have someone in mind or already going on steady. Next year is a better year to get married and have children. So please practise retrain for good luck sake. Do not believe what other people tell you about your spouse. Question their intention.

For those in school, you may find school works too easy and tend to take it too lightly. You have greater interest in doing other things like arts, music and sports which are good compliments but it's important to strike a balance.

For the elderly, you need to take care of your health by exercising regularly. Cut down on the fatty stuff which is not good for your heart. You don't know your heart that well for he only complains to you when it's too late. Come to the Fountain of Wealth more often to recharge yourself.

Useful Feng-Shui Tools for Rats:

Good to place a 'Fountain of Wealth Replica' and a 'Monkey on Horse' on the North-West sector of your office and home respectively to attract important helpful friends to fight against the unkind enemies. Carry a 'partner charm (ox, dragon and monkey)' wherever you go to help open opportunity doors. To strengthen your business and career, place a 'Dollar Sign Fountain of Wealth's Lucky Water' and a 'Citrine Gem Tree' in the north sectors of your office and home respectively. ## Oxen`s Characteristics:

People who are born in the years of the Oxen, are well-known for their perseverance and stamina. When other people fizzle out, Oxen carry on. And they do so in good stride and nature. Never quick to put blame on others, they are reliable friends and partners amidst their stubbornness. Even in good times and prosperity, oxen maintain their mellowed countenance. Oxen`s partners, unless they are oxen too, can often get impatient on their slow-natured partner and that's where murmuring can go on for years but with little harm done, on our good natured Ox, of course.

Oxen`s 2004 Luck:

As the rain stops, clear sky is ahead of you in 2004. Your perseverance will yield fruits this year. For those in business this means greater profits. For those working, you may get a promotion and salary increment. Looking back, you are lucky that you decided to press on. Your resources should increase this year and you will find you can do more things at a faster pace with better results than before. Do not allow your success to muddle your head and take over your humble past otherwise you will realise before long all your past supportive friends and relatives will desert you.

For those seeking love and romance but without much success, love is in the air for you this year. You will eventually find that someone whom you deserve better. For those who are married your relationship will be strengthened after what you guys went through last year. You may want to plan to have a baby to arrive in 2005.

For students, your result will improve over last year, giving you more confidence in school. Carry on the good works and you can even do better.

Elderly oxen need to be extra careful in whatever they do. Do not climb high and let the younger ones do the heavier loads for you. Sure you may have the muscles, oilment aren't cheap also.

Useful Feng-Shui Tools for Oxen:

Oxen should use more attack mode feng-shui this year to herald in the good stars. `Laughing Buddha on the Horse` in the living hall facing the front door is a good start. Place a `Dollar Sign Fountain of Wealth`s Lucky Water` and a `Citrine Gem Tree` in the north sectors of your office and home respectively. Do this after you have cleansed all the dust off the top hinges of all your doors and windows. Near your front door, it is good to place a `Treasure Pot`. To attract important friends' aid, use a `Fountain of Wealth Replica` in the North West sector. Your `Partner Charm` to carry wherever you go is `Rat, Snake and Rooster`. Use a statue of `Chong Kui` in the South to defend against the Death Star lurking around this year.

To secure your new love relationship, make sure you have your `Rose Gem Love Ducks` in the South West of your room. If you think you have not found the right one, use `Singing Love Birds` instead. If too many to choose from, use `Mystic Knot`. To harness your marriage relationship, `Rose Gem Tree` will do.

Get a `Wisdom Pagoda` and place in the North East sector of the study room to help your children improve on their results.

Elderly oxen have more things to get. If staying alone, defend yourself by planting `Jade Kuan Yin bamboo` outside the house. Within a 3 meter radius from the front door, place a `Jade Gem Tree` to deflect bad energies. Clear all clutters in the centre zone of the house where the bad `Yellow-5 Star` will hit this year. Rear 9 Goldfish (8 Gold colors 1 Black color) in the North. In the East have a statue of `Fu-Lu Shou` and have `Hu-Lu` in the bed room to negate all bad energies. Carry a `8 Precious Stone Charm` wherever you go. You can place a `Hu-Lu` in the car if you drive.

TIGER in 2004

Tigers` Characteristics:

Men or ladies born in the years of the Tigers are brave and strong in characters & behaviour. They are adventurous and enjoy threading on dangerous grounds. Curious by nature, they like to embark on new things, learning new skills and settling on new environment. Unlike the oxen who are stubborn inwardly, tigers are outwardly defiant, making them at times, seemed hard to get along with. Those who submit to them, on the other hand, have much to gain, for the Tiger will do most of the work for them.

Tigers` 2004 Luck:

Although you have crossed the Grand Duke Star this year, you are fortunate that there are many other good stars that will help alleviate the degree of wrath. You should experience better results than last year. For those in business and working alike, although you will continue to face problems but you will realise how easily the problems solve for themselves this year. Some big serious crisis may arise (that may seem unbearable), but have a level-head and maintain your cool. The problem will be solved and you will walk out of it safely and a better man.

While career luck is good, love will unfortunately be like a roller coaster ride for the tigers this year. Sometimes, the problems do not lie with the other party. Use a mirror and look into it seriously. Only after you did that and concluded the problem was with the other party then you may throw the mirror at him/her. For those married, if only you treat your spouse like your children and not the maid, things will be happier for everyone. Absence will make the heart fonder, short separation is good but permanent separation is expensive.

Like any years, Tiger students` education will be like a walk in the park. Problems may come from sports` injury. You still playing too rough? Use the overhead bridge. Lazy bones may equate to broken bones.

For the elderly, there is a blood star around, so don` t climb up and down or do anything stupid. It may be a good idea to go on holidays to improve your luck further.

Useful Feng-Shui Tools for Tigers:

Continue to use those auspicious wealth-gathering feng-shui tools from last year like the `Dollar Sign Fountain of Wealth Lucky Water` in the North sector, `Three Legged Frog` on each side of your doorway; inward facing, `Chinese Ancient Coins` on the inside door-knobs of every rooms, `Citrine Gem Tree` and our `Fountain of Wealth 24k Replica` etc. You may however want to change your `Laughing Buddha on Money Bag` to `Laughing Buddha on the Horse` since you can receive wealth luck better this year. A `Treasure Pot` will also be good to add this year in the South East sector. Place a statue of `Guan Kong` in the South to help clear all hurdles and a `Mystic Knot` in the South to strengthen your prestige and status. To appease the Grand Duke Star, place a pair of `Pi Xiu` in the centre of your hall. Your `Partner Charm` to carry consists of `Horse, Dog & Pig`.

Remove all triangular shape flower vases in the home to avoid extra-marital problems. Use round or oval shape ones instead. If you already have `Rose Gem Love Ducks` on the South- West sector but it does not help much, add a `Singing Love Birds`. Putting `Rose Gem Stones` below the pillow may help also. To reduce your temper, get an `Amethyst Gem Tree`. You can put this at the North East sector.

No need to add anything if your Tiger children are doing well in their studies. Otherwise, use the basic `Wisdom Pagoda` and `Clear Crystal Gem Tree` like the rest. More importantly, put a `8-Precious Stone Charm` in their school bag to ward off any potential injury.

Elderly Tigers should do the same things like the Elderly Oxen: planting `Jade Kuan Yin bamboo` outside the house, a `Jade Gem Tree` inside the front door, clear all clutters in the centre zone of the house, rear 9 Goldfish in the North, `Fu-Lu Shou` in the East, `Hu-Lu` in the bed room and carry a `8 Precious Stone Charm` wherever they go.

Rabbits` 2004 Luck:

The jolly good rides are far from over for the Rabbits in 2004. With the Jupiter Star helping you, most ventures you embark on will bring in good profits. Those working will see a year of pay increment and promotion. If a better offer come along, take it after all its your good luck. However the biggest pitfall could be your arrogance. Don't flash nor boast less you don't mind a hard fall. Save enough for the rainy days ahead. No harm buying some lotteries as you have side luck but to spend all your savings on the gambling tables, you will definitely regret.

This is a good year to have a partner but be sensible, don't just grab anyone who come along. Give more points to dog, goat and pig horoscope suitors. There may be wedding bells ringing or someone having a baby this year. Don't let bad economy worry you as good luck is with you.

Rabbit children don't be too proud just because you did well before. If you lax so will your results.

Elderly rabbits will be in the pink of health. Happy news will surround you throughout the year. You may strike lottery but do your part to help the less fortunate. Come down with your whole family to touch the water at the Fountain of Wealth to receive good energy as often as you can.

Useful Feng-Shui Tools for Rabbits:

Since you are still on the Bull-run, learn to use wealth-gathering feng-shui tools to help you realise your dreams faster. `Laughing Buddha on the Horse` in the living hall facing the front door is a good start. Followed by the `Treasure Pot` in the South-East sector. If you already have a `Dollar Sign Fountain of Wealth`s Lucky Water` in the North sector of your office, make sure you replace the water with new ones. Don't expect 2 bottles to last you forever. Get your `Citrine Gem Tree` in the North sector of your home if you have not. A pair of `3 Legged Frog` at the front door facing inwards represents wealth leap-frogging into your house. To attract side-luck, use the `Crystal Crab with the Golden Claws` in the South East sector. You may want to place your lottery tickets between its claws.

Use a `Fountain of Wealth Replica` in the North West sector to attract helpful friends. Your `Partner Charm` to carry wherever you go is `Dog, Goat and Pig`. Hang a `Mystic Knot` in the South to improve on your popularity factor which may be going downhill.

Tie a `Mystic Knot` in the South West of your room if you have too little time but too many suitors. Carry with you a `Dog, Goat and Pig Partner Charm` if you wish. For the married, get a `Laughing Buddha with 5 children` if you want to have kid. This can be placed in the west sector of the house. Don't worry, you won't have 5 children at one go. Use `Rose Gen Tree` to strengthen husband and wife relationship.

For senior rabbits, help yourselves with a `Fu Lu Shou` statue in the East and the `Crystal Crab with Golden Claws` and wait happily for the good news. But please buy a lottery ticket first. Elders should carry a `8 Precious Stone Charm` wherever they go to ward off poison arrows.

DRAGON in 2004

Dragons` Characteristics:

Those born in the years of the Dragons often lead a life of grandeur and gaiety. They are adventurous and like to go into areas where others avoid. Quite often not seen as a good team-player, partly due to their over-bravery and partly due to the ways they look at things differently, Dragons, however, never failed to marvel people of their results. A trustworthy specialist, whom is capable to get the most difficult task accomplished, Dragons make wonderful partner, provided you decided to take the back seat.

Dragons` 2004 Luck:

Some Dragons may see their good luck takes a 360 degree turn this year. Nothing life-threatening, mainly on career and finance areas affected. With the good stars taking a recess, it is good to consolidate this year rather than to expand. Divest some businesses by first quarter had you not done so last quarter. For those working, don't switch job even if you found you had lost favours from your boss; humans are fickle minded anyway. Enemies and dangers abound; so be alert. The trick is to hang on as Jupiter is only 365 days away from you. Snake and Rooster friends will help you.

You don't have much romance luck this year, so get fat and ugly if you need to; just make sure you have the determination and money to convert when the Romance Star comes your way next year. For those married, be truthful to communicate to each other. You can depend on your spouse for moral support. Learn to be more patient.

Shit can happen even to the brightest Dragon students and it seems more likely to happen this year than others. Check your exam answers twice!

For the elderly, health will be better than last year but that does not mean you can go back to past bad habits. Smoke and drink less. Stock market may seem to have picked up and you have the urge to pun your hard earned savings on it. Not wise, put in the drawer better.

Useful Feng-Shui Tools for Dragons:

Defense is your best bet this year. Start to grow `Jade Guan Yin Bamboo' outside your house, clear unnecessary clutters especially in the centre of the house where the `Yellow-5 Star' lands. Always close your toilet's door even when not in used. Keep your `Laughing Buddha on Horse' in the drawer and change to `Laughing Buddha on Money Bag'; don't let your money run away. Hang a `Lucky Bat with Golden Coins' in the South East. To defend your job position, get a `Ba-Gua Fountain of Wealth's Lucky Water' in the North sector of your office. Most locals are quite shy to place it in their office while the expatriates, on the contrary, are more bold and earnest to do so; perhaps that's why they are getting the jobs. If it helps for you to know: Many CEOs have it !!! To help you attract more helpful friends in these bad times, use a `Monkey on the Horse' in the North West sector. Your `Partner Charm' to carry is `Rat, Monkey, Rooster'. To protect yourself against all ill-intention enemies, have a `Guan Kong' in the South and carry a `8-Precious Stone Charm' wherever you go. To strengthen your popularity, hang a `Mystic Knot' in the South also. Put an `Amethyst Gem Tree' in the North East to increase will power.

A `Rose-Gem Tree' is a good relationship energy enhancer for all married dragons. Those singles may want to try a pair of `Singing love Birds'. If you guys are going steady but always quarrel, try a pair of `Rose Gem Ducks'. South West sector is the position to place these.

If your children are restless, rude or rebellious, put a `Dragon Turtle Carrying a Baby Turtle' in the East Sector. To help them in their study, `Wisdom Pagoda' in the North East.

Elderly Dragons do not worry about your health; just your pockets. Have `Jade Gem Tree' in your room, a `Fu Lu Shou' in the East and carry with you wherever you go a `8 Precious Stone Charm'.

SNAKE in 2004

Snakes` Characteristics:

People who are born in the years of the Snakes are highly intelligent and wise. Usually very logical in their thinking, Snakes seldom make a move without careful calculation. Once decided, snakes will put their plan to work till they attain their goals. That does not mean there won`t be a change in plan. In fact, that`s one of the Snakes` unique characteristics: Flexibility. That`s why snakes can `scheme` to have people working together for them and still have them saying, `What a nice guy`!

Snakes` 2004 Luck:

If you had done what we advised last year, i.e. to prepare yourselves for the next year, you will probably benefit greatly this year. All the good stars are heading your way! Good profits will turn in this year. However do not use this money lavishly nor to plough them into dubious projects. Improve on the security aspects of your business; don`t be too flashy less you don`t mind being robbed. For those working, although you attract many helpful friends, there are also many who are jealous of you. Don`t give people too many chances to gossip about you. You also have good side-luck this year and strike lottery but please get a ticket first.

It is a good year to get married. Your charm and beauty will attract many suitors but you have to choose one. Your partner horoscopes include rooster, ox and monkey. Any philandering snakes beware, your spouse will come to know about your clandestine affair which may lead to expensive separation.

Snake students probably can cope better than before but that does not mean you can afford to look for a boyfriend or girlfriend; chances are very high that he or she won`t be marrying you fifteen years down the road, so get back to your books! Scholarship may present itself to those who put in the right effort.

For the elderly, the doctors will give you a clean bill but do not allow yourself to be a busybody into other people`s affairs. Too shameful to be slapped at this age. Instead divert your energy to more meaningful courses like community works. Buy yourself some lottery this year and check the results. Watch your personal security to avoid being robbed.

Useful Feng-Shui Tools for Snakes:

You will be glad that you need to spend money buying feng-shui items to help you receive wealth rather than to block bad luck. You want to be on the attack mode. Invest in a `Fountain of Wealth Replica` and a `Monkey on Horse` on the North-West sector of your office and home respectively to attract important helpful friends who will open many doors of opportunities for you. To bring your business and career to a new height, invest in a `Dollar Sign Fountain of Wealth`s Lucky Water` and a `Citrine Gem Tree` in the north sectors of your office and home respectively. Near your front door of your house, it is good to place a `Treasure Pot`. At its South sector, hang a `Mystic Knot` to increase your popularity. To handle all the gossip moguls and poison tongues, place a `Chong Kui` in the South and a `Cicada` in the West to give you some peace. Make sure you have a `Laughing Buddha on the Horse` in the living hall facing your front door to receive the good stars into your household. Finally in the South East Sector, put a `Lucky Bat with Golden Coin`. Your ideal `partner charm` is `ox, rooster and monkey`. If you are interested in striking lottery, you may want to try using the `Crystal Crab with the Golden Claws` in the South East sector. You may want to place your lottery tickets between its claws.

For those who have many suitors, place a `Mystic Knot` in the South West. Use a `Rose Gem Tree` if you suspect your spouse is not behaving right. Trying to increase your will power against lust? Use `Amethyst Gem Tree` instead .

If Your Snake kid has no problem with studies, then leave him/her alone. More importantly don`t have his/her back facing the door of the study room as this will cause lots of stress.

Elders should have carry a `8 Precious Stone Charm` wherever they go to ward off poison arrows.

Horses` Characteristics:

Horse people stress more on freedom than any of the other 11 horoscopes` people. They want a carefree life, one with little regulation and control. They have very strong innate drive, having the `always can do more` mentality. If stiffened, they will feel trapped and easily be despondent. They are fast in their action and like to act first and answer later. Horse people enjoy courtship and recognition. And they are good lovers.

Horses` 2004 Luck:

You are not quite out of the wood yet. Before things get better for you next year, you have a few hurdles to clear this year. Fortunately, unlike last year, many people will come to your aid this year. Planning is important to all horse businessmen this year. Any investment should be postponed to next year which you will witness a good upswing. Don't cheat to look better, paper cannot cover fire. You will be exposed and subsequently disposed if you cheat. For those working, there will also be many obstacles, hang on and press on.

Do not despair if you still cannot get a steady this year. Later is better than never. Stay happy as nobody likes a furlong face and don't blame it on your horoscope! The beauty of the Horse is not on the face but its strength and elegance. Married couples may see their relationship as mundane and boring. Try to break that routine, take up a hobby together.

School work need not be boring if you can study in groups. Choose your group well; preferably have some who are smarter than you. Play equally hard to unwind.

Elderly horses should not stay at home all the times. Immerse yourself in hobbies, part-time jobs or playing with your grandkids. Come down with your whole family to touch the water at the Fountain of Wealth to receive good energy. Make sure you switch off your electrical appliances and stove after cooking which you tend to forget.

Useful Feng-Shui Tools for Horses:

You have to apply a mixture of offensive and defensive feng-shui mechanism this year. In the North sector of your office use a `Ba Gua Fountain of Wealth's Lucky Water` to strengthen your career luck. Place a `Cicada` in the West sector to ward off political foes and to give you peace of mind in your work. An `Arrowana Fish` for the men and `Golden Carp` for the lady, can be placed on the working desk. Back at home you can be more elaborate. Have a pair of `Pi Xiu` at the Centre point of the house to deflect the `Yellow-5 Star`. `Jade Gem Tree` can be used near to the door to filter out bad energy. `Chong Kui` can be deployed at the South. Choose a `Laughing Buddha Carrying Money` for the living hall while the South East, a `Lucky Bat with Golden Coins`. Since you have helpful friends' luck, remember to use a `Monkey on the Horse` which when read in Cantonese would mean, `Straight Away Good`, in the North West and carry with you a `Partner Charm` consisting of `Goat, Tiger and Dog`. To give you extra energy to press on, an `Amethyst Gem Tree` is ideal in the North East.

You need a pair of `Singing Love Birds` in the South West to find love. Married people use `Rose Gem Tree`.

To help Horse students concentrate on their studies, use `Crystal Gem Tree` in the West sector and `Wisdom Pagoda` in the North East.

If your parent is a horse and staying alone, it helps to remind him/her to watch his door and the stove. Forgetfulness may lead to unnecessary inconvenience. Get him/her a `Jade Gem Tree` to be placed near the front door; the tree won't help him lock his door automatically but may filter out bad energy flow. Strengthen him/her with `Fu Lu Shou` in the East and a `8 Precious Stone Charm` to carry with him/her.

Goat in 2004

Born in the Year: 1943, 1955, 1967, 1979, 1991, 2003
Element: water wood fire earth metal water

Goats` Characteristics:

A few common traits stand out of the Goat people: they are hardworking and peaceful people. Not quick to make impression, Goat people are not status-crazy. Rather, they enjoy what they do best, with or without getting the credit. The only area where they will fight relentlessly is where it comes to the affairs of the heart. They are good and reliable partners who will go through thick and thin for their loved ones.

Goats` 2004 Luck:

After one rough year in 2003, your luck will improve tremendously this year. In your business you will be presented with many new opportunities, some which may not be your forte. However, you will have the blessings to turn everything to your advantage. All you need is good doses of faith and same level of hard work. For those working, you may be headhunted for a totally new job. If you don't know how to decide, let your spouse decide. Don't have one? Just toss a coin. Buy some lottery tickets.

Good and bad news for those who are singles and seeking. After the drought, you will be hit by many choices this year and you won't know who is the right one. This issue, don't toss coin. Instead treat everyone equal and try to know each individual better. Screen out the undesirable ones and eliminate one by one. You probably end up with two persons: one you really like but he/she has some serious bad points, and the other one whom you may not like as much as the first one but then he/she has some serious nice points. Toss a coin now? Heaven forbids. Ba-zhi (birth-data) matching is the feng-shui solution.

Look after everyone's health as the Sickness Star is around. Don't overstrain your goat children on their study. Some are rather technically than academically inclined. Its not The End to end up in ITE. Some technical institutions' ex-pupils are big bosses today who hire graduates to work for them. That's why the saying, 'many graduates are not millionaires, many millionaires are non-graduates.'

Same advice to the elderly goats, do not overwork. There will also be love traps; so do watch out. It is not impossible to have someone thirty years younger to want you. It is just not highly probable.

Useful Feng-Shui Tools for Goats:

You will still have use for some of last year's defensive feng-shui tools to tackle some of the bad stars. At the same time, it is good to invest in some offensive ones because good luck is heading your way and you want to receive them fast. Things to reuse: Continue to grow Jade plant or 'Guan-Yin Bamboo' outside your main door and on the balcony to block off poison arrows, 'Hu-Lu' and 'Fu Lu Shou' on the East sector, 'Fountain of Wealth 24k Replica' on the North-West to attract helpful friends and carry with you wherever you go a '8-Precious Stones Charm'. New things to invest: 'Ba Gua Fountain of Wealth Water' for the North sector to improve your career luck, 'Buddha Carrying Money' in the living hall facing the main door and a 'Treasure Pot' nearer to the door to help you grow money, 'Guan Kong' in the South to protect you and a 'Cicada' in the West to give you peace. Try a 'Crystal Crab with Golden Claws' on the South East sector to improve on your side luck. Put your lottery ticket between its claws. Your Partner Charm consists of 'Horse, Rabbit and Pig'.

To help you seek the right partner, tie at 'Mystic Knot' on the South West sector of your room. If still not enough choices, add a pair of 'Singing Love Birds'.
