Application for general skilled migration to Australia

Form
47SK

Important

Before completing this form, you should read the detailed requirements in booklet 6, General Skilled Migration, available from the DIMIA website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/index.htm

This form also applies to New Zealand citizens and eligible overseas students in Australia wishing to apply onshore for permanent residence under General Skilled Migration visa categories.

Also read the following instructions carefully.

Please note that this is not an employment application form to send to an employer or a skills assessment form to send to a skills assessing authority.

Before filling in the form

Make sure you have all the required documents. Please refer to booklet 6, General Skilled Migration for a full list of all the documents you will need.

Make sure you have read booklet 6, General Skilled Migration and followed all the instructions relevant to the visa class for which you are applying.

Submission of all the necessary documents will ensure the timely processing of your application. It is recommended that you use the checklist provided in Part 2 of booklet 6, General Skilled Migration to help you complete your application. You will need to check all the boxes relevant to the visa class for which you are applying, and attach the completed checklist with your application.

If your spouse is also being assessed, make sure you have all the documents relating to your spouse's point score and/or ability to meet the basic requirements.

If you are being sponsored by a family member you should have received a completed form 40 Sponsorship for migration to Australia from your sponsor. If you are being sponsored by a State/Territory government, you should have received a completed form 1244 State/Territory Sponsorship: Skilled – Independent Regional (provisional) class from your sponsoring State/Territory agency.

Making a valid application

To make a valid application you must:

- use this form (available for free download from the Department of Immigration and Multicultural and Indigenous Affairs (DIMIA) website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/index.htm or from any DIMIA office);
- indicate the correct class of visa by selecting the type of application in Part A of the application form;
- include a skills assessment from the relevant assessing authority for your nominated occupation. Your occupation must be on the Skilled Occupations List. For classes DD and DE your skills assessment must be suitable;

- nominate and obtain a skills assessment for an occupation on the Sydney and Selected Areas Skilled Shortage List (SSASSL) if you are applying for a Skilled Australian Sponsored visa (subclass 138) AND your sponsor lives in Sydney, Gosford, Newcastle or Wollongong. (As defined by postcode – refer page 15)
- provide the address of where you intend to live while your application is being dealt with. Failure to give your residential address will result in this application being invalid. A Post Office box address will not be accepted as your residential address;
- pay the required application charge (see heading 'Visa application charge');
- if applying for an onshore general skilled category visa, provide all the documents required to make a valid application as detailed in Part 2 of booklet 6, General Skilled Migration; and
- lodge your application by posting it to:

Adelaide Skilled Processing Centre
Department of Immigration & Multicultural & Indigenous Affairs
GPO Box 1638
ADELAIDE SA 5001
AUSTRALIA

or by courier to:

Adelaide Skilled Processing Centre
Department of Immigration & Multicultural & Indigenous Affairs
1st Floor
55 Currie Street
ADELAIDE SA 5000
AUSTRALIA

Any application lodged at any other office or in any other way cannot be accepted, will not be a valid application and will not be processed. Attach any documentation you are required to provide with your application (this includes a skills assessment).

You must also:

- complete the form in English;
- answer all questions truthfully; and
- provide supporting documents where necessary.

If you provide incorrect information or documents, this may affect whether you are granted a visa or not, or your visa may be subsequently cancelled.

Read the notes on each question. If a question is not applicable, write 'N/A'. Any changes or corrections you make must be initialled and dated by each person who signs the form. If you use the page provided in the form or any other sheets of paper for additional information, each must also be signed and dated by all persons who sign the form.

Visa application charge

Payment must accompany your application and is generally not refunded if the application is unsuccessful. Before lodging your application please check the amount of the charge at a DIMIA office, or see form 990i Charges in the Forms section of the DIMIA website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/index.htm

To make a payment in Australia, please pay by credit card, debit card or by bank cheque or money order made payable to the Department of Immigration and Multicultural and Indigenous Affairs.

For clients outside Australia, please pay in Australian dollars by credit card or international bank cheque made payable to the Department of Immigration and Multicultural and Indigenous Affairs.

If you intend to pay by credit card, please provide details in Part Q. Please do not pay by cash or personal cheque.

Who the form covers

The application form covers a family unit, namely a primary applicant and, if applicable, spouse and dependants.

If you have a spouse, consider which of you is most likely to meet visa requirements before filling in the form. That person should be the primary applicant and complete Part B 'Your details'.

If you are applying for one of the sponsored categories, the family member who is being sponsored must complete Parts B and H as the primary applicant.

Dependent children

A dependent child may be your natural child, adopted child or step-child. 'Step-child' means a natural or adopted child of your current spouse or a natural or adopted child of your former spouse where the child is under 18 years of age and you have a legal responsibility to care for them (for example, where your former spouse is deceased and you have legal custody of the child). You will need to provide a certified copy of the overseas or Australian court order which you have in relation to the child.

A child aged 18 years or over is not considered dependent if he or she is married or in a de facto/common law relationship or is engaged to be married.

A child aged 18 years or over will not be considered dependent unless you can show that they are wholly or substantially reliant on you for financial support for their basic needs of food, shelter and clothing. You must also show that you have provided that support for a substantial period and that the child is more reliant on you than on any other person or source. Unless you can provide evidence of this, they should apply separately. You should also be aware that a child aged 25 years or over will generally not be considered dependent.

Children of any age who have a total or partial loss of bodily or mental functions which stops them earning a living are regarded as dependent and part of the family unit (whether or not they migrate with you). Give details of such children and whether they are in your care or in an institution.

In all cases you should attach evidence of your child's dependency on you.

Other dependants

You may include other relatives in your application if they are wholly or substantially reliant on you for financial support for their basic needs of food, shelter and clothing and they have been reliant on you for that support for a substantial period. They must also be more reliant on you for support than on any other person or source.

A relative may also be considered dependent on you if they are reliant on you for financial support because they have a mental or physical disability which stops them from earning a living to support themselves.

Other relatives dependent on you or your spouse may include, for example, an aged, unmarried relative.

If you have dependants who are aged 18 years or over, please obtain a form 47A Details of child or other dependent family member aged 18 years or over.

A form 47A must be completed for each dependant aged 18 years or over, whether migrating or not. Form 47A can be downloaded free from the DIMIA website.

Custody requirement

DIMIA will seek to ensure that allowing a child to migrate is not in contravention of Australia's international obligations in relation to the prevention of child abduction. If your application includes a child under 18 years of age and the child's other parent is not migrating with you or there is any other person who has the legal right to determine where the child can live, you will need to provide a Statutory Declaration from each of them giving permission for the child to migrate. Alternatively, you can provide a certified copy of a valid court order showing that you/your spouse has the legal right to remove the child from the country.

Supporting documents

The documents you must provide are listed in Part J of your application. It is recommended that you also read booklet 6, General Skilled Migration and use the checklist provided in Part 2 to help you complete your application. Enclose all documents with your application. You may be asked to provide other documents during processing.

'Certified copies' of documents mean copies authorised or stamped as being true copies of originals by a person or agency recognised by the law of your country. In Australia, they must be certified by a Justice of the Peace or Commissioner for Declarations or by a person before whom a statutory declaration may be made.

Documents in languages other than English must be accompanied by an English translation completed by a translator accredited by the National Accreditation Authority for Translators and Interpreters (NAATI). Refer to the Yellow Pages or the NAATI website www.naati.com.au for a list of available translation services in your State/Territory.

Note: You must include both a certified copy of the original language document and a certified copy of the translated document with your application. Do not send original documents (except health reports).

About the information you give in this form

DIMIA is authorised to collect information provided on this form under Part 2 of the Migration Act 1958 'Control of Arrival and Presence of Non-citizens'. The information provided will be used by DIMIA for assessing your eligibility for a visa to travel, enter and remain in Australia. It may also be used for other purposes relating to the administration of the Migration Act, for example, to assist migrants with settling in Australia, to monitor the conduct of migration agents or for ensuring compliance with the Migration Act.

The information on this form, including the results of tests for Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV), will be used to assess your health for an Australian visa. A positive HIV or other test result will not necessarily lead to a visa being denied. Your result(s) may be disclosed to the relevant Commonwealth, State and Territory health agencies to advise of necessary arrangements, particularly where Health Undertakings have been made.

The information provided might also be disclosed to agencies who are authorised to receive information relating to adoption, border control, business skills, citizenship, education, health assessment, health insurance, health services, law enforcement, payment of pensions and benefits, taxation, review of decisions and regulation of migration agents.

The collection, access, storage, use and disclosure by DIMIA of the information you provide in this form is governed by the Privacy Act 1988 and, in particular, by the 11 Information Privacy Principles. The information form 993i Safeguarding your personal information, available from the DIMIA website, gives details of agencies to which your personal information might be disclosed.

The Freedom of Information Act 1982 also relates to your personal information. Under this Act you can apply for access to documents containing your personal information. You or someone authorised to access information on your behalf can apply to do this at DIMIA offices in Australia. There is no fee for accessing your own information. If you are overseas, you must also provide the Australian mission overseas with an address in Australia to which copies of personal records can be sent. More information on how to make a request under the Freedom of Information Act is given on form 424 Request for access to documents.

Authorisation of a person to receive written communications

You may authorise another person to receive all written communications about your general skilled migration application with DIMIA. That person will be known as your authorised recipient. To do this you will need to complete Part L Options for receiving written communications and Part M Authorised recipient details in this form. The authorised recipient will need to sign at Part N. You can only appoint one authorised recipient at any time. DIMIA will communicate with the most recently appointed authorised recipient.

DIMIA is required under section 494D of the Migration Act 1958 to send to your authorised recipient any written communications relating to your application that would otherwise have been sent to you. DIMIA will only send to your authorised recipient information that you are entitled to receive. For example, if you are a visa applicant and have a sponsor, your authorised recipient will not receive personal information about your sponsor, unless your sponsor also appointed the same authorised recipient.

If you decide to change the authorised recipient that you have nominated after you have lodged your application, you must promptly advise DIMIA in writing of the details of that person. (You may use form 1231 Appointment of authorised recipient for this purpose).

Using a migration agent

You are not required to use a migration agent. However, if you intend to use a migration agent you are advised to use a registered migration agent.

Under Australian law, anyone who uses knowledge of migration procedures to offer immigration assistance to a person wishing to obtain a visa to enter or remain in Australia must be registered.

A list of registered migration agents is available from the Migration Agents Registration Authority (MARA) website www.themara.com.au

You can contact the MARA at:

PO Box Q1551
QVB NSW 1230
AUSTRALIA

Telephone: 61 2 9299 5446

Fax: 61 2 9299 8448

E-mail: themara@themara.com.au

Registered migration agents are bound by the Migration Agents Code of Conduct and generally charge for their services. The MARA investigates complaints against registered migration agents and may take disciplinary action against them. If you have a concern about a registered migration agent, you should contact the MARA. You can also download a copy of the complaint form from MARA's website.

Using an agent exempted from registration

Only registered migration agents can provide 'immigration assistance' for a fee or gift. However, certain people, such as officials, parliamentarians, diplomats, are able to provide immigration assistance as exempted agents so long as they do not receive a fee or gift.

If you wish to appoint an exempted agent you must complete form 956 Appointment of migration agent or exempted agent and attach it to this application form.

Authorisation of a migration agent to act on your behalf

If you have a migration agent acting on your behalf in relation to your general skilled migration application you need to complete Part L Options for receiving written communications and Part O Migration agent details. The migration agent will need to sign at Part P.

Appointing a migration agent to act on your behalf includes authorising DIMIA to send to that agent any written communication about your general skilled migration application that would otherwise have been sent to you.

You will be taken to have received any documents sent to that agent as if they had been sent to you.

When you provide details of the migration agent please make sure you give the agent's 7-digit migration agent registration number (MARN) and the agent's full name.

If you change your migration agent or end his/her appointment after you have lodged this application you must promptly advise DIMIA by using form 956 Appointment of migration agent or exempted agent, which is available on the DIMIA website or from your migration agent. You should also notify the agent of this, preferably in writing.

Appointing a migration agent to act on your behalf includes authorising DIMIA to:

- discuss your general skilled migration application with your agent and seek further information via your agent; and
- send to your agent any written communication about your general skilled migration application that would otherwise have been sent to you. This means your migration agent will be your authorised recipient for written communication under section 494D of the Migration Act 1958 and you will be taken to have received any documents sent to the migration agent as if they were sent to you.

DIMIA will communicate with your agent about your application, including your personal information such as health, police checks, financial viability and personal relationships. If your agent authorises it, this communication may take place by e-mail. DIMIA will only send to your agent information which you are entitled to receive. For example, if you are a visa applicant and have a sponsor, your agent will not receive personal information about your sponsor, unless your sponsor has also appointed the same agent.

In some situations DIMIA staff will need to speak with you directly, rather than your migration agent, for example, if you are applying for a visa DIMIA may interview you about your personal circumstances relevant to the visa application. In some situations DIMIA staff will also send documents to you directly (such as your passport) instead of sending these to your agent, but will inform your agent that it has done so.

If you have appointed a migration agent to act for you, you are still responsible for the accuracy of information and supporting documentation that you provide to your agent so that your agent can provide it to DIMIA.

Consent to communicate electronically

DIMIA may use a range of means to communicate with you. However, electronic means such as fax or e-mail will only be used if you indicate your agreement to receiving communication in this way.

To process your application DIMIA may need to communicate with you about sensitive information, for example, health, police checks, financial viability and personal relationships. Electronic communications, unless adequately encrypted, are not secure and may be viewed by others or interfered with. If you agree to DIMIA communicating with you by electronic means, the details you provide will be used by DIMIA only for the purpose for which you have provided them, unless there is a legal obligation or necessity to use them for another purpose, or you have consented to use for another purpose. They will not be added to any mailing list.

The Commonwealth Government accepts no responsibility for the security or integrity of any information sent to DIMIA over the internet or by other electronic means.

If you authorise another person to receive documents on your behalf and they wish to be contacted electronically, their signature is required on the form to indicate their consent to this form of communication.

112 ACKNOWLEDGMENT REGARDING SOCIAL SECURITY PAYMENTS

This acknowledgment must be signed by the primary applicant and each accompanying person aged 16 years or over.

I understand that if granted a visa:

- there is a 2-YEAR wait for social security payments, including unemployment benefits, for most newly arrived migrants;
- I will need to have enough money, even if unemployed, to support myself for the first 2 years and if I run out of money or fail to get a job in that period, that would not be sufficient reason to make me eligible for social security income support payments;
- the cost of living in Australia, compared to many other countries, is high. As a guide, it is estimated that in 1999, households of migrants who had lived in Australia for less than 2 years spent an average of A$930 per week supporting 3 people;
- approval to migrate does not guarantee employment in Australia and that it is entirely my own responsibility to secure employment after arrival, including investigating my prospects before I arrive in Australia;
- work availability varies significantly from time to time in different parts of Australia and that for many jobs in Australia, applicants must be eligible for membership of a professional or industry organisation and/or be able to be registered or licensed with an Australian state authority before working in a particular occupation.
