and Citizenship

Notification of changes in circumstances

(Section 104 of the Migration Act 1958)

Form

Important – Please read this information carefully before you complete this form. Once you have completed this form we strongly advise that you keep a copy for your records.

Section 104 of the Migration Act 1958 (the Act) requires you to inform the Department of Immigration and Citizenship (the department) of any changes in your circumstances that affect any answer to a question in your application form.

You do not have to notify the department of any changes in your circumstances that occurred:

- after you were granted your visa (if you applied for your visa in Australia); or
- after you have been immigration cleared (if you applied for your visa outside Australia).

Use this form to notify the department of any changes in your circumstances that affect any answers on your application form. You should use form 1023 Notification of incorrect answer(s) if you wish to notify the department that you have supplied it with any incorrect information.

You must answer all questions on this form.

WARNING:

- If you do not comply with section 104 of the Act and notify the department of your new circumstances, your visa is liable to be cancelled under the Migration Act 1958.
- If you have been granted a visa, the information you provide on this form will be taken into account in deciding whether the visa should be cancelled.
- If you are an applicant for a visa which has not yet been granted, the information you provide on this form will be taken into account when assessing your visa application.
- If your visa is cancelled and you are in Australia, you will become an unlawful non-citizen. Unless you are granted a further visa, you will be detained and removed from Australia.
- If your visa is cancelled and you are outside Australia, and you subsequently travel to Australia, you will be refused immigration clearance and will be removed from Australia.
- If you subsequently discover that you have provided any incorrect information on this form, you must notify the department that you have done so. Use form 1023 Notification of incorrect answer(s) to do this.
- Cancellation of a visa that already has been granted is not automatic. If you are in Australia, you will be given an opportunity to comment on the grounds for possible cancellation before a final decision on cancellation is made.

About the information you give

The department is authorised to collect information provided on this form under Part 2 of the Migration Act 1958 'Control of Arrival and Presence of Non-Citizens'. The information provided will be used for assessing whether or not you have complied with section 104 of the Migration Act, and for other purposes relating to the administration of the Migration Act, for example, to assist migrants with settling in Australia or for ensuring compliance with visa conditions.

The information provided might also be disclosed to other agencies. You should read the information form 993i Safeguarding your personal information, which is available from your nearest office of the department, or from where you collected this form, so that you can be better informed about the agencies to which your personal information might be disclosed, and the reasons for disclosure.

Relevant information about you will be disclosed to federal, state and territory police to assist in your location and possible detention in the event that you become an unlawful non-citizen. You will become an unlawful non-citizen if your visa ceases (by cancellation for breach of a visa condition for example) or expires and you do not hold another visa authorising you to remain in Australia.

The collection, access, storage, use and disclosure by the department of the information you provide in this form is governed by the Privacy Act 1988 and, in particular, by the 11 Information Privacy Principles. The information form 993i Safeguarding your personal information, available from offices of the department or from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/, gives details of agencies to which your personal information might be disclosed.
