

FEES WITH EFFECT FROM 6 APRIL 2010 FOR CITIZENSHIP APPLICATIONS AND RIGHT OF ABODE, INCLUDING RECONSIDERATION, STATUS CHECKS AND CONFIRMATION OF THE NON-ACQUISITION OF BRITISH CITIZENSHIP

Fees must be paid in full at the same time as you send your application(s) to the UK Border Agency. If not, there will be a delay in processing your application(s) until payment has been received. Please ensure that you have sufficient funds to cover the fee payment. Certificates of citizenship cannot be issued until fees have been received.

You may pay by cheque or credit/debit card. Please send your payment with the payment slip attached to this leaflet. You are advised not to send cash or postal orders. Please return the slip with your application if paying by Transcash.

Fees are prescribed in law and only part may be refundable if applications are unsuccessful or withdrawn, except for declarations of renunciation (see table overleaf). You should read very carefully the guides that accompany application forms to ensure that you meet the statutory requirements before applying. If you are paying using a bank or credit account which belongs to someone else, you should give their details on the payment slip in case any refund becomes due.

The fees shown overleaf are for applications made and decided in the United Kingdom. Applications made abroad must be sent or handed in at the nearest British Embassy, British High Commission or British Consulate whom you should consult about the correct method of payment. There may be different fees or additional fees for applications made abroad. Also, applications for registration or naturalisation as a British overseas territories citizen normally have to be referred to the Governor of the British overseas territory with which the applicant is connected, for his decision. Where this is necessary, applicants will be notified about the fee payable after they have sent in their applications.

The overall fee for British citizenship comprises two elements. They are:

- a) Fee for handling and processing the application. None of this is refundable if the application is refused or withdrawn.
- b) Citizenship ceremony fee. This is paid by applicants who are liable to attend a citizenship ceremony. It is refunded to applicants whose applications are refused or withdrawn.

The total amount including the ceremony fee is shown on the tariff overleaf.

Payments should be made using the payment slip attached to this leaflet.

This leaflet has no legal authority as an interpretation of the British Nationality Act 1981 or the Fees Regulations made under the Act. It is intended merely as a guide.
